

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2019

VERANDA

PALM BEACH
STYLE
NOW & FOREVER

A proper pleated shade is an opposites-attract foil for a fabulously mod lamp. Quadrate lamp and Bongo shade, to the trade; portaromana.com.

THE V LIST

Our distillation of fine new products that are both pretty and practical—and oh-so-Veranda.

Delicate china adorned with whimsical patterns makes for a winsome table. Vivaldi Four Seasons and Corallo plates, from $170 each; corallamaiuri.com.

These versatile abaca rugs with geometric patterns can inject a shot of ethnic chic into a wide range of interiors. Ekon and Amare rugs, to the trade; pattersonflynmartin.com.

Moghul botanical designs inspire a finely feathered textile. Bird Song fabric, $160 a yard; botanica trading.com.

For the truly pampered pooch: a canopy bed by Anne Miller, complete with pom-pom fringe. The Du Cap dog bed, from $3,500; merriweatherdogbeds.com.

Bring the garden indoors with architectural panels in a pretty pastel shade. Trellis wallpapers, to the trade; no9thompson.com.

Retro-cool proportions distinguish a sleek barstool upholstered in a plush Pierre Frey herringbone. SG2 Murena barstool, from $8,805; thefutureperfect.com.

Elevate the most important meal of the day with a sinuous breakfast tray by Jeffrey Billhuber. $850; thelacquercompany.com.

PRODUCED BY LUCY BAMMAN | WRITTEN BY MARIO LÓPEZ-CORDERO